I’m home

Anne and I closed on our home this afternoon with the able assistance of Angie, notary extraordinaire. Man, we signed a ton of paperwork. Virginia is now officially home. Very glad to be here.

Good news

Our appeal for support of our Peace Meditation netted two donors so far. One for $1000 and another for “something else.”

More good news

80,057 people have used our free meditations as of today! Congratulations to a great team putting this together.
